PUNJAB STATE RAPID
FIDE RATED CHESS CHAMPIONSHIP
2025-2026

I feel honored to support the Punjab State Chess Association in hosting a grand venue for the State Level Chess Championship. Chess instills in our children the values of patience, strategy, and discipline – qualities that shape their future and strengthen their character. I am proud to contribute to the growth and promotion of this noble game in Punjab.

Dr. Arun Bansal, Administrator, Social Substance

As parents, we take great pride in supporting this FIDE-rated Chess Championship and in encouraging young talents to pursue their passion for the game. We strongly believe that nurturing strategic thinking and discipline from an early age helps shape a brighter and more promising future. We are happy to contribute and stand alongside the organizers in making this prestigious event a grand success.

Mr. Dharminder Pal Bansal, Coordinator, Social Substance

Chess teaches patience, strategy, and determination—qualities that build strong minds and bright futures. I encourage all young players to embrace challenges, think creatively, and play with confidence. May this FIDE-rated Championship inspire you to reach new heights and achieve your dreams. Remember, every move on the board reflects your focus, courage, and spirit in life. Keep learning, keep striving, and let your passion for chess guide you on the path to excellence.

Mr. Muneesh Thapar, Ex President PSCA

As a fellow player, I understand the excitement, pressure, and anticipation that come with every move in a chess tournament. Yet, beyond competition, the true joy of chess lies in playing with passion, learning at every step, and challenging yourself to grow. I encourage all participants to embrace each moment, stay focused, and enjoy the journey on the chessboard. May this FIDE-rated Championship inspire you to play boldly, think creatively, and make Punjab proud.

Mr. Pankaj Sharma, International Medalist

I am proud to see young talents, especially girls, participating in the fide rated chess championship. As chairperson of the women commission, I believe in empowering girls through intellectual sports like chess, which build confidence and leadership. Such events promote equal opportunities and inspire the next generation of achievers. Wishing all participants great success.

Mrs Tamanna (Chairperson Women Commission PSCA)

I am proud to see young players competing in this fide rated chess championship and showcasing their talent. We remain committed to empowering youth through the game of chess, we celebrate strategic thinking, determination, and sportsmanship. This championship unites young minds, nurtures talent, and builds future leaders. Together, we inspire excellence, promote intellectual growth, and shape a stronger tomorrow.

Mr Ankush Kathuria (President PSCA)

It is encouraging to see young talent coming together to participate in the upcoming fide rated chess championship. Chess will help develop their focus, strategy, and perseverance — skills essential for life. We are proud to support this event and wish every player great success and growth in the competition.

Mr Madhav Thapar (Secretary PSCA)

As a treasurer, coach, and fellow chess player, I feel proud to be part of this prestigious Punjab State Fide rated under-1700 championship. This event will inspire young players to train harder, compete with confidence, and enjoy the beauty of the game. My best wishes to all participants for great learning and success.

May this fide rated chess championship inspire you to think boldly, play smartly, and dream big.
wishing all young players, the very best of luck and a bright future ahead.

Mr Rajesh Mittal (Chairman PSCA)

It gives me immense pleasure to know that the Punjab State Fide Rated Under-1700 Chess Championship will be held in October. This prestigious event will provide young players with a strong platform to showcase their skills and grow in confidence. My best wishes to all participants for a memorable and successful championship

Mrs Rajesh Duggal (Chief Advisor PSCA)

I feel honored to be part of the Punjab State Fide Rated Under-1700 Chess Championship as an arbiter. This event will not only promote fair play but also encourage young talents to compete with discipline and sportsmanship. I wish all players the very best for their games.

Mr Dinesh Gera (Arbiter PSCA)

it is heartening to see that one of the most developed districts is actively promoting intellectual sports like chess through the Punjab State Fide Rated Under-1700 Chess Championship. Such best practices set an example, and we will surely try to implement them in less developed districts as well. My best wishes for the success of this event.

Mr Rohit Sharma (Chairman District Development Committee PSCA)
