V. TIME CONTROL AND PLAYING SYSTEM:

- The tournament shall be played as a 9-round Swiss System tournament in accordance with the FIDE Laws of Chess and the FIDE Tournament Regulations.
- The time control shall be 90 minutes with 30 second increment from move 1.
- The tournament will be submitted to FIDE as an international tournament valid for FIDE Standard Rating and for the achievement of FIDE Title Norms, in accordance with the current FIDE Handbook. All participants shall compete under the same playing conditions, pairing system, and time control.
- Players may obtain results valid for FIDE Title Norms, provided that all requirements established in the current FIDE Handbook are fulfilled.
- Default Time: A player who fails to appear at the chessboard within 30 minutes after the scheduled start of the round shall lose the game by default.

A player who forfeits a game by default shall not be paired for the following round unless they notify the Chief Arbiter of their intention to continue in the tournament before the end of the round in which the default occurred. Neither the arbiters nor the Organizing Committee are under any obligation to contact or locate a player who fails to appear for a scheduled round. It is the sole responsibility of each participant to inform the Chief Arbiter if they are unable to play or expect to arrive late but intend to continue participating in the tournament.

- Swiss-Manager pairing software will be used, and the pairings will be published at: <https://chessresults.com/fed.aspx?lan=2&fed=PAN>
- Round 1 pairings will be published on Monday, August 24, 2026.

VI. TIE-BREAK SYSTEM:

- The following tie-break systems shall be applied in the order listed below:

- 1- Direct Encounter
- 2- Buchholz Cut 2
- 3- Buchholz Cut 1
- 4- Sonneborn-Berger
- 5- Buchholz
- 6- Greater Number of Wins (including wins by forfeit)

- ❖ In the event that a tie remains only for prize-winning places, the following procedures shall apply:

1. Tie between two (2) players:

A two-game Blitz Match shall be played with a time control of 3 minutes with 2 second increment from move 1. The colors for the first game shall be determined by lot.

If the match remains tied, an Armageddon Game shall be played. The right to choose the color shall be determined by lot, with the winner of the drawing choosing the preferred color. The player with the White pieces shall receive 6 minutes and must win the game. The player with the Black pieces shall receive 5 minutes; a draw shall be considered a victory for Black.

2. Tie among more than two (2) players:

A Blitz Round-Robin Tournament shall be played with a time control of 3 minutes with 2 second increment from move 1. Should the tie persist, additional Round-Robin tournaments shall be played until a single winner is determined.

VII. HALF-POINT BYES:

Players may request up to two (2) half-point byes, each worth ½ point, during the first three rounds of the tournament. Bye requests must be submitted through the online registration form. Any player requesting a half-point bye shall be ranked behind any other player with the same final score for tie-breaking purposes. Requests for half-point byes submitted after the close of registration shall be subject to the discretion of the Chief Arbiter.

VIII. PRIZE FOUND:

To further establish the V PANAMA CHESS OPEN 2026 as one of the premier chess tournaments in the region, the Organizing Committee has allocated an attractive prize fund of USD 7,200, aimed at rewarding the best performances and encouraging the participation of strong national and international players.

The prize fund shall be distributed as follows:

Code of Conduct for the Virtual Technical Meeting

In order to ensure a respectful, professional, and orderly environment during the Virtual Technical Meeting, all participants shall conduct themselves appropriately and treat the Organizer, Arbiters, and fellow participants with courtesy and respect.

Offensive language, disrespectful, abusive, aggressive, or inappropriate behavior, as well as any conduct that disrupts the orderly conduct of the meeting, will not be tolerated.

The Organizing Committee reserves the right to immediately remove from the virtual meeting any participant engaging in such behavior, without prejudice to any additional measures that may be taken in accordance with these Regulations and any other applicable FIDE or tournament regulations.

X. ORGANIZATION:

Organizer: AO José Pittí Suárez – FIDE ID 6600972

Chief Arbiter: IA Yolys Rondón – FIDE ID 3903508

Match Arbiters and Fair Play Officials: Will be appointed by the Organizing Committee.

XI. FINAL PROVISIONS

- During the Technical Meeting, the Appeals Committee shall be established, consisting of three main members and two reserve members.
- Appeals against decisions made by the Chief Arbiter must be submitted in writing, signed, and delivered to the Chief Arbiter by the player (or by their representative in the case of a minor) within 30 (thirty) minutes after the end of the game. The appeal must be accompanied by a USD 100.00 appeal fee. If the appeal is considered valid, the amount will be refunded. If the appeal is rejected, the amount will be transferred to the Organizing Committee.
- Fair Play measures shall be implemented in accordance with the FIDE Fair Play Commission Guidelines, including, but not limited to, entrance controls, random checks during games, among others.

- The Organizing Committee will make every effort to broadcast live the games played on the top boards through DGT electronic boards.
- The selection of the games to be broadcast will be the responsibility of the Organizer and the Chief Arbiter
- Any matters not covered in these Regulations shall be decided by the Chief Arbiter, the Organizer, and the Tournament Director, taking into consideration the current edition of the FIDE Laws of Chess in force.

TOURNAMENT POLICIES

PLAYING HALL

- Players and attendees must maintain silence inside the playing hall.
- Eating is not permitted in the playing area, especially at the chess boards.
- Beverages (water, coffee, juices, and others) must be consumed in the area designated by the Organizer or placed underneath the chess tables. No type of liquid is allowed on the chess tables. NO EXCEPTIONS.
- Electronic or digital devices, smart watches, smartphones, PDAs, tablets, iPads, computers, earphones, communication devices, microphones, speakers, among others, are strictly prohibited in the playing area. If any electronic device belonging to a player produces a sound during the game, or if it is determined that the player has any electronic device in their possession during the game (even if it is switched off), the penalty for such violation shall be the loss of the game, followed by an immediate investigation into the nature of the device's use in order to determine whether expulsion from the tournament is justified.
- If there is clear and undeniable evidence of cheating of any kind, whether electronic or otherwise, the player shall lose the right to continue participating in the tournament. No refund shall be provided.

- Players whose games have already finished are also not permitted to use or possess mobile phones or other electronic devices in the playing area or in the restrooms. The penalty shall be at the discretion of the Chief Arbiter after an investigation has been conducted and may include the loss of the round.
- Players shall keep their score sheets visible at all times, allowing the arbiters to verify the time control and see the last recorded move.

PLAYER CONDUCT

- Players may be subject to screening before entering the playing hall in each round and during their games (random Fair Play checks).
- Players may only use the restrooms designated by the Organization for participants who are currently playing their games. Once their games have finished, players may use the restrooms designated for spectators.
- If a player leaves or exits the playing venue (playing hall, coffee and water area, or restrooms exclusively designated for players) without the permission of the Chief Arbiter while their game is in progress, the penalty for this violation shall be the loss of the game.
- Players are not allowed to speak with spectators or other players during their games.
- Inappropriate, rude, disrespectful, or improper behavior will not be tolerated. The Organizer reserves the right to deny entry to the tournament.
- Once a game has finished, the player must leave the playing hall, as they become a spectator. No post-mortem analysis is allowed.

SPECTATOR RULES

- A spectator shall be considered any person who is not directly involved in the tournament during the competition, including, but not limited to: parents, coaches or instructors, family members, members of the press, and players who have already finished their games.
- No spectator shall be allowed to enter the area where players are competing unless authorized by the Chief Arbiter of the tournament.
- Spectators shall have a designated waiting area (outside the playing area) where they may wait for the players they represent. They shall also use the restrooms designated for spectators.
- Once each round has started, photographs will only be allowed during the first 5 minutes. After this time, spectators must leave the playing hall. The Organization will also appoint an official photographer responsible for taking event photographs, which will later be shared with the players through a link.
- During the time allowed for photographs, spectators are not permitted to speak with players, nor are players allowed to speak with spectators, while the games are still in progress.
- If a spectator violates any of these rules, they shall be removed from the tournament and shall not be allowed to return to the playing hall for the following rounds.
- Inappropriate, rude, disrespectful, or improper behavior will not be tolerated. The Tournament Director reserves the right to deny entry to the tournament.
- The Tournament Director reserves the right to remove from the playing hall any spectator who fails to comply with the rules or who disrupts the tournament in any way.

DRESS CODE

With the aim of projecting the best possible image of chess to the public, the Panamanian Chess Federation (FPA) recommends that all players attend the event wearing formal or semi-formal attire, such as long trousers or jeans, shirts, polo shirts (collared T-shirts), and/or jackets.

Players wearing sleeveless shirts, shorts, miniskirts, or blouses with a pronounced neckline will not be permitted to participate in games. Likewise, the use of caps, hats, or any other type of head covering will not be allowed inside the playing area, unless prior authorization is granted by the Organization for duly justified medical, religious, or force majeure reasons.

IMAGE AND MEDIA RELEASE POLICY OF THE V PANAMA CHESS OPEN 2026

This is a public event that will be extensively photographed and recorded. Any player, delegate, coach, arbiter, or spectator may be photographed or filmed immediately before, during, and immediately after the event. By participating in the tournament, each individual gives their consent and acknowledges that the PANAMANIAN CHESS FEDERATION has the right to use and broadcast their image in connection with the event, related event promotions, on its website, through its social media channels, and through any other media related to the event.

By confirming their participation, ALL players, delegates, coaches, clubs, parents, guardians, and legal representatives accept and acknowledge the regulations and conditions established for this event.
